New Communities.

It has long been our belief that all civilized peoples know best how to manage their own affairs, that the youngest communities are most prosperous when enjoying the powers of self-government, that whenever a colony of British subjects may be planted, there should a transcript of the British Constitution exist. New communities are seldom or ever called upon to deal with those knotty problems in political economy and international intercourse which crack the brains of the greatest Statesmen. It is a popular error, an error which we regret to find that some even in this colony appear to imbibe, to think that a small colony far removed from the parent state is a less fitting object for self-government than a large colony nearer home. We hold the reverse to be true. Distance alone forms a very important element in this question. It is absurd, on the very face of it, to assert that the affairs of a Colony at the antipodes can be best governed from Downing street. If we look across the forty-ninth parrallel of latitude upon which we border, a very striking illustration of the truth of the proposition would be found. The Pacific Territories of the United States have, in the fullest sense, enjoyed the powers of self-government from the very first. Have they been successful? Has the dangerous experiment of allowing people to manage their own affairs proved fatal in a single instance? We have been very much struck with words witten by PUBLICOLA, nerely twenty years ago. His words are bold, manly, and the sequel confirms more fully their truth. We will give them to our readers, as far more approproate and impressive than any we can offer:—"California has made for itself a constitution. The auri sacri fames has not, as was apprehended, transformed men into brutes. Civilization is not buried in the diggings. The fouler stuff that stained it is washed away from the genuine metal of humanity. Order reigns in San Francisco, and the temple of Law and Justice is built on the banks of the Sacramento. This is a pleasant contradiction of fears and prophecies that were rite but lately. We heard tales without end of robbery and murder. Plunder was supposed to be the rule, and safety the exceptional and rare condition. Force was the sole authority, and the only law was Lynch. Nor was it without some reason that fearful scenes were apprehended and imagined. Adventurers from all parts of the world poured in upon that singular locality, and there was no external restraining power upon their conduct. What could be anticipated but that universal greediness of gold would generate universal strife, crime, violence, and destruction, leaving the field open for a fresh importation of competitors to repeat the bloody catastrophe? But the season of disorder (that such a season should intervene was inevitable) has passed away with wonderful rapidity. The social wants and social principles of our nature have asserted their supremicy over a random and reckless selfishness. Out of a human chaos we see arising, spontaneously, grandly, a People, a Government, a State claiming admission into that family of nations which forms the great Federated Republic of the new world. The Statesmen of the old world are, one and all, afraid to trust human nature. Tell them the rights of man, and they dread the ravages of a ferocious animal. They must have armies, police, and priests to keep the people in order. Their resources are but two, force and cajolery. Let them look to California. Lawless men, with gold literally scattered around them as dirt, gather by deligates in Convention and create for themselves rules and orders, consecrate the fundamental principles of the social compact, construct the machinery of legislation and magistracy, and stand before the world a free and constitutional nation. There is something better and wiser in man than is dreamed of by kings, ministers, and bishops. The people who make such a Constitution will know how to work it. They have no aristocracy or priesthood to pervert its operation. It is no grant of a perjured Sovereign, to be violated or superseded on the first opportunity. There it is, the work of their own hands; the expression of what they know to be their common rights and common interests. And will any body pretend to say that other masses of mankind in other quarters of the globe, might not have done as well and wisely? There has been no inspiration in the case. No Royal Moses arose to guide them in the wilderness. Europe has millions who, if left to themselves, would have acted as justly and as judiciously. Constitution-making has become a by-word in our hemisphere, because they have so often been incongruously made and speedily shattered. Why? Let the scorners tell us that. Hosts of evil influences have always been let loose upon them. They have found a foe in every tyrant, the nearest being the deadliest. The unreasoning military machine has ever been at hand to crush them. Corruption has been poured into them from all the sinister interests of Europe. A priesthood, always treacherous to manly freedom, has prostituted the powers of Religion to the restoration of Slavery. The Revolutionists of Europe have had no fair play. They were not men inadequate to grapple with problems which have been so easily solved by the adventurers of California. The alleged mysteries of politics, as often happens with those of religion, are made a cloak for knavery. Had California been ours, we should have sent some military scion of a titled family to govern it, with an enormous salary and ignorance or unfitness as enormous. After a quarter of a century, or perhaps twice that period, a very liberal Whig Ministry would have granted our Calefornian Colony a House of Assembly, taking care that the nominees of the Governor should outnumber the Representatives of the people, allowing only a property suffrage, and exempting the Civil List from all reduction or revision. We should have saddled them with a bishop and sent them cargoes of clergymen and convicts. After worrying them a thousand ways, perhaps goading them into some ill-concocted and 'unnatural rebellion,' we should have declared them unfit for self-government, and then have proceeded to tax them for the Mother Country, and tax the Mother Country for them, until both parties heartily loathed the connection. What great Colony have we that, if left alone, could not manage for itself as well as California? An English operative, with the spirit of adventure in him, sails for the golden region. He becomes, then, one of a body of Constitution makers. In England he had only to obey the constitution. He was not even admitted to its elementary privilege of the Suffrage. The man is the same. Sea breezes have breathed no higher spirit of wisdom into him. It is only the difference of man politically free and man enslaved. And is this all that old and highly civilized governments can do for mankind? Have ages of legislation and an historical Pantheon of Statesmen not enabled us to raise the great majority of our working classes above the condition of serfs, while a young republic creates for itself a system of freedom, dignity and progress? This is more like decrepitude than maturity. We are the same race, here and beyond the Atlantic, and on the shores of the Pacific. Our colonists abroad, our operatives at home, are the true brethren of the free and self-governed in that remotest region."

The English Government consider the African slave trade extinct, and have withdrawn the squadron which they have maintained on the coast at great cost every year. For a time the expense was £500,000 a year.

Mormonism is flourishing in England. In London alone there are eight branches of the Church, and 104 elders, 38 priests, 23 teachers and 30 deacons are always hard at work.

Req. Olympia Brown is a decendant of General Putnam, the hero of the wolf story. No wonder she has so much pluck and energy.

IMPORTANT TELEGRAM.

THE NORTH-WEST CONFEDERATED.

Special to the BRITISH COLUMBIAN.

OTTAWA, May 24.—The negotiations for the transfer of the Hudson Bay Company's Territory are complete, and the Dominion Parliament will accept it in a few days

The Celebration.

The dark clouds which had gathered o'er the sky and cast their reflection over many a countenance cleared away yesterday morning, and gave place to a glorious day. For hours every avenue leading to Beacon Hill was thronged with carriages, equestrians and pedestrians, and long before the time appointed for the races to commence that lovely spot presented a truly lively and gay appearance, such an one as was well calculated to despel the impression that Victoria is such a depopulated, forsaken town as it was described by Mr. Scott of the Oregonian. Shortly after 1 o'clock the Governor's carriage, with Mrs. Seymour and suite, appeared on the ground.

THE RACES.

FOR THE TRIAL STAKES of $5 each, with $30 added, straight heat, 1 mile.

Mr Lascelles' White Stockings, late Marquis	Brown and white stripe
Mr Reynold's Butcher Boy	White, blue cap
Mr Myers' Dutchman	White
Mr Quarles' Joe Lane	Violet
Mr Harris' Royal Bill	Blue, scarlet cap

At the tap of the drum the horses got away with a good start, the Dutchman taking the lead, which he kept but a short time, being soon passed by Royal Bill, who come in winner by two lengths; The Butcher Boy 2nd, White Stockings 3d, Dutchman 4th, Joe Lane 5th.

THE QUEEN'S PLATE, with $100 added to a sweepstakes of $10 each.

Mr Howard's Cafe au Lait	Blue
Mr Parker's Lizzie
Mr Lammon's Greyhound	White, blue cap

The horses got a fair start, neither seeming disposed to press to the lead for the first mile; on the second mile, the Greyhound stretched to the front, coming in, under a strong bit, winner by one length, Cafe au Lait 2nd, Lizzie 3rd.

THE GOVERNOR'S PURSE, with $50 added to a sweepstakes of $5 each; 9st. 7lbs., 1 mile.

Mr Lascelles' White Stockings, late Marquis	Brown and white stripes
Mr Myers' Dutchman	White
Mr Quarles' Joe Lane	Violet

This race was easily won by Dutchman, who came in with a taught rein, 5 lengths ahead.

THE HURDLE RACE, of $5 each, with $75 added. Winners to carry 12lbs extra. Two miles over 6 flights of hurdles. Gentlemen riders 12 stone.

Mr Gerow's Royal Charlie	Red, blue cap
Mr Howard's Old George	Blue, White cap

This race was very closely contested between Royal Charlie and Royal Bill, old George starting merely to make the 3rd horse required by the rules of the race. Royal Bill took the lead, which he kept to the last hurdle, when Royal Charlie passed him, and came in winner by over a length.

THE SCURRY STAKES of $1, with $20 added. Nine stone entrances to be made on the course. Winners excluded.

Gabriel's Prince, Lammon's Butcher Boy, Howard's Cafe au Lait, Owen's Black Bess, Golden's Jim, McKenzie's Dandy, Capt. Larkins' Peter.

The races, previous to this, passed off quietly and smoothly, but in this, unfortunately, a hitch occurred which caused some unpleasantness and led to considerable dissatisfaction as to the results. At the start, Cafe au Lait, either from strangeness of the rider or some other cause, was behind about 8 rods. At the three quarter post he came to the front, and, it is asserted, was passing Butcher Boy, when a colision occurred and the rider of Cafe au Lait was thrown, and thus lost the race. Butcher Boy came in winner by over a length, Black Bess 2nd, by a neck ahead of Golden's Jim, who was 3d in the race. A protest was entered by Mr. Howard against the race being given to Butcher Boy, on a charge of foul. The Judges, however, overruled the protest and declared Butcher Boy the winner of the stakes.

This ended the races on the programme of the day. Several scrub races, however, were got up, the particulars of which we did not obtain.

THE STEAMER GUSSIE TELFAIR will go to Nanaimo this afternoon to coal. She will remain there a day or two and change her screw.

AN ATTEMPT TO MURDER.—On Tuesday, 11th inst., a man, name unknown, (supposed to be a French Canadian), left Seattle for Snomish River, and while pursuing his way on the trail the next day, within one mile of his destination and about a mile and a half of the Point Elliott Telegraph Office, he was attacked by an Indian, named "Joe," and stabbed with a knife in the breast and cut in several places, besides having his fingers lacerated while endeavouring to take the knife from the savage. It appears that the Indian was present a short time before at Preston's store, when a man named Kennedy received a large sum of money, he stated that he was going to Mukilteo, by the telegraph trail or by the beach. "Joe" went and laid in wait for him, and as the stranger came along first, he attacked him, expecting to get some money. The wounded man was taken care of by a Catholic clergyman, and when the steamer Mary Woodruff left Mukilteo last Wednesday, he was reported to be in a dangerous condition. A party is now hunting for the Indian, who belongs to the Snoqualmie tribe, and has the reputation of being a desperate charatcer.—Seattle Intelligencer 24th.

HORRIBLE TRAGEDY NEAR BOISE CITY.—The Oregonian gives the particulars of a horrible tragedy which occurred near Boise City on the 15th inst. Mr. Theodore Burmester left home on that day leaving his wife and two children at home. A German in his employ, about three o'clock in the afternoon, came into the house and attempted violence on the person of Mrs. Burmester She seized a gun to shoot him, but both barrels snapped. In the struggle which ensued, he shot her with a revolver, the ball passing entirely through the lower part of her body. She managed, however, to crawl out at the door. The villian immediately set the house on fire and then shot himself. Shortly after assistance arrived, and Mrs. Burmester was removed out of further danger. It is thought she cannot long survive. The body of the villain was consumed in the flames. The two children were not in the house at the time of the tragedy and, therefore, escaped unharmed.

NOT YET!—According to a St. Louis dispatch, dated 17th inst., communications have been published between the College of Bishops of the Methodist Church South, and Bishops Janes and Simpson, a deputation representing the Board of Bishops of the Methodist Church, lately in Session at Meadville. There is no immediate prospect of the reunion of the two sections. The reply of the Southern Bishops does not entertain the question of reunion as it existed previous to the separation in 1844. They assert that fraternal relations must first be restored before such proposition can be entertained; these cannot be restored except upon an overture made by the Northern General Conference upon the basis of the plan of separation of 1844, implying the abandonment of the position of the General Conference at Pittsburg, in 1848, assuming that the separation was a scism and secession on the part of the Southern Church. The Southern Bishops also deny that slavery was the cause of the separation.

BREAKING JAIL.—The Seattle Intelligencer of Monday gives the following account of Jail breaking at Steilacoom, under date May 17th: "About 11 a.m., to-day, Mr. Orr. the Jailor, was set upon by four of the prisoners, Smith, Williams, Brown and Bargeman. They choked him, took away his arms and locked him up below in a cell. His brother, hearing a noise, ran into the jail, when he was instantly seized and locked below. They then secured all the arms and made a break for liberty, firing at Mr. James Downey, who attempted to stop them, but missing him. Smith, Williams and Brown made for the brush and there hid themselves, but the citizens turning out, they were found and secured inside of three hours after their escape. Bargeman did not go outside of the jail-yard. He went into the privy, took off the seat and hid below. He was secured by Mr. Orr about 6 p.m.

THE DISTRICT ELECTION.—The representation of the District being rendered vacant by the death of Dr. Davie, Mr. DeCosmos is a candidate for the seat. We understand he has received very general encouragement from the settlers in Comax, Chemanus, Cowichan and Saanich, and will probably be returned without opposition. Mr. DeCosmos is a staunch protectionist and a warm and consistant advocate of the agricultural interests, and is preeminently entitled to the support of the Farmers. So far as we are aware no other candidate is likely to offer.

IMPORTANT NEWS.—The telegram from Ottawa, which we publish to-day, will be read with interest. Although the announcement it contains does not in the least take us by surprise still we cannot but be somewhat excited, at the conclusion of negotiations by which nearly half a continent is transferred to Canada, and the Dominion is made to form the Eastern boundary of our own Colony. The authority upon which this announcement is made is altogether unexceptionable.

IMPORTANT SALE.—Mr. L. Franklin will hold a very important real estate sale to-morrow commencing at 12 o'clock noon. The catalogue will comprise property on James' Bay, on Collinson Street, on Wharf Street, on Johnson street, on Carmorant street, on Putnam street, and in the Esquimault and Metchosin Districts. For terms &c, see advertisement.

THE SCHEPELER FAILURE.—It is stated that several German bankers, in New York, have raised $1,000,000 to tender Schepeler & Co., to meet the demands on that firm, and enable it to resume business.

THE FENIANS COMING!!—A San Francisco despatch, dated May 23rd says. "The Metropolitan Theatre was crowded last evening to witness the first appearance of George Francis Train, in this city, as a lecturer. The stage was decorated with American and Irish flags. Mr. Train declares himself an Irishman, and says he will be President in 1871. He advises Fenians to effect an organization for the taking of British Columbia.

FROM SAN FRANCISCO.—The Bark Gem of the Ocean, Capt. Mitchel, 14 days from San Francisco, arrived along side of the Hudson Bay Co.'s Wharf yesterday afternoon, with 500 tons of goods consigned to Millard & Beedy. The Gem of the Ocean, after discharging her cargo, will go to Burrard Inlet to take a cargo of lumber to San Francisco, on the ship's account.

BANKING HOUSE SKEDADDLE.—Much consternation was caused in a New York banking establishment by the disappearance of the junior member of the firm, taking with him two certified checks, one for ($85,475, another for) $23,650. His destination had been discovered. Norwas it ascertained what disposition he had made of the checks.

DESTRUCTION OF TURNER'S OPERA HOUSE.—At one o'clock on the 16th May Turner's Opera House, Dayton City, Ohio, was totally destroyed by fire. One man was buried under the crumbled walls, while attempting to save his goods. The total loss is estimated at $600,000. The fire is supposed to be the work of an incendiary.

THE NEXT STEAMER.—The steamer Active sailed from San Francisco for this port on Saturday, but her machinery breaking down, she put back. The steamer California took her freight &c., and sailed for this port direct yesterday, and will, consequently be due here on Friday or Saturday.

INTERNATIONAL PIGEON SHOOTING.—On the 14th May, a pigeon-shooting match took place at Chicago, between Ward, the champion of Canada, and Bogardus, the champion of Illinois, for $5000. Bogardus was the victor, killing 155 birds to Ward's 145.

MORE KU-KLUX MURDERS.—The Hon. John Atkins and the Hon. Alexander Stone, of Georgia, have both been murdered by the Ku-Klux gang. The colored man, who drove the former at the time of his assassination, had to flee from Warrenton county to escape death.

THANKS.—We have been placed under obligations to the local agent of Wells, Fargo & Co., to Capt. Sholl, of the Gussie Telfair, and to Purser Myrick and Engineer Smith, of the steamer Wilson G. Hunt, for late California, Oregon and Puget Sound papers.

FROM PORTLAND.—The str. Gussie Telfair, Capt. Sholl, arrived from Portland at 4 oclock yesterday morning, bringing mails, passengers and freight. A list of the passengers and a copy of the manifest will be found elsewhere.

SHARP COPPETITION.—A New York despatch of May 15 says. "A fight took place at the Capital yesterday between Col. Duncan and Col. Capehart, the applicant for the office of Superintendent of the Interior department. The former was worsted.

QUICK TIME.—The Portland Herald says H. C. Leonard made the trip overland from Portland to Saeramento in five days, and that it is the intention of the Stage Company to reduce the time to 4½ days.

THE LARKINS MURDER.—The examination of Frank Vaughn, for killing Alex. Lankins, took place at Oregon city, last week. Vaughn was duly committed for trial at the next term of the Circuit Court. The examination occupied three days.

FROM SANDWICH ISLANDS.—The Brig Robert Cowan, Capt. Gardner, arrived yesterday from the Sandwich Islands, via Portland, with a full cargo of S. I., & Oregon produce. She comes consigned to Janion, Rhodes & Co.

FROM THE SOUND.—The str. Eliza Anderson, Capt. Finch, arrived from Olympia at 12:30 last night, with 36 passengers, and a quantity of live stock.

THE WILSON G. HUNT sailed for Nanaimo yesterday morning at 1;30. She will coal and return to Victoria on Wednesday and sail the same evening for Portland.

FROM THE SOUND.—The Wilson G. Hunt arrived from Olympia and ports on the Sound, yesterday morning at 10 o'clock. She brought 82 passengers.

THEATRICAL.—The Portland Herald of 21st mentions that Mr. Bates would take a benefit at the theatre, that evening.

MARRIAGE IN HIGH LIFE!—It is reported that Mrs. Lincoln will shortly be married to the Chamberlain of the Duke of Baden.

HOLIDAY.—No paper will be issued from this office to-morrow, as our employees take a holiday to-day.

The Sultan of Turkey has ordered the abolition everywhere throughout his empire of the regulations which prevented Christians from entering Mosques. The only condition exacted is that all Christians who avail themselves of this privilege shall act in a becoming manner while visiting the buildings—stipulation which will press very heavily on a certain class of tourists often to be seen striding and stamping through churches on the European Continent.

TELEGRAPHIC.

SPECIAL TO THE BRITISH COLUMBIAN.

EUROPE.

MADRID, May 20.—A dispatch has been received announcing that about 2000 adherents of Queen Isabella, under Gazetti and Phesuela, have assembled at Perhignan, a French city, on the Spanish frontier. At last accounts they were nearly ready to cross the Border. The Government has taken steps to prevent such an invasion.

MUNICH, May 20—The recent elections resulted generally in favor of a union of North and South Germany.

LONDON, May 20—The Oxford crew have commenced to practice for the contest with Harvard. The London Rowing Club challenged the Harvard Club to a match.

VIENNA, May 20—The Emperor has given his sanction to the publication of the School Bill passed by the Rechsrath.

DUBLIN, May 21—The Grand Lodge of Orangemen of Ireland have petitioned the Queen against the disestablishment of the Irish Church.

LONDON, May 20—The elections in France seem to have been attended with more or less disorder. Since the 12th inst., 148 persons have been convicted in Paris for raising disturbances. Of these only 17 have been discharged. Popular demonstrations are reported at Nisme, where the people sang the Marseillaise. At Bragas the prison was forced open by a crowd of political agitators. One of the leaders, who had been arrested, was released. In the department of Aube-Dunuy, at the election of Mr. Hurier, a riot took place in which blood was shed.

CALIFORNIA:

SAN FRANCISCO, May 22—The steamer Active, hence for Victoria, returned for repairs, having broken her machinery.

EASTERN STATES.

NEW YORK, May 20—A remarkably brillant meteor was visible here and at Poughkeepsie and other places. It traversed the heavens in a north-westerly direction, with great splendour.

The Herald states that Ladintero, late Vice Consul at Havana, had an interview with President Grant yesterday on Cuban affairs. He has been frequently in the interior of the Island and says that the Cubans will certainly succeed, as their policy of harassing the Spaniards by avoiding a general engagement is proving very effective.

CHICAGO, May 20—A Tribune special says Joint Committee on Retrenchment are proposing a visit to California, to examine into the public expenditure on the Pacific Coast.

The President, General Sherman, the Cabinet Officers and members of the Diplomatic Corps will participate in the decoration of the soldiers' graves at Arlington.

A Tribune special says a steamer yesterday took 14 cases of regulation rifles and a quantity of pistols and ammunition for Havana.

Seven carsloads of passengers, principally for Pacific States, left Omaha for the west last evening. Among them were Judge Field of California. Senators Williams and Casserly, with their families.

HAVANA, May 20—The Proclamation of Gen. Cespedes says, Every prisoner who voluntarily fought against Revolution shall be executed, but the soldiers of the regular army may expect clemency. The property of the enemy shall be confiscated for the benefit of the Republic.

HAVANA May 20.—Representatives from a cousular agent, who has resided in Cuba for the last 15 months, places the Cubans largely in the advantage. He is of the opinion that the Insurgents will eventually succeeded.

THE POPE, if he lives till the 17th of June next, will have filled the Pontifical chair longer than any of his predecessors, except, as Catholics beleive, St. Peter himself. Of the two hundred and fifty-eight occupants of the Papal throne, but three have reigned for twenty-four years. St. Peter is supposed to have been twenty-five years a Pope; and there is a superstition that none can live beyond that term; Pius IX., notwithstanding his gout and Graham bread, promises to destroy the tradition.
